VISAS FOR AUSTRALIA

I have been requested by the Government of Australia to bring to your notice the arrival in Australia of a foreign national in possession of a Landing Permit but not accompnied by her husband, whose name had been deleted from the face of the permit and which had been endorsed by a British Consular Official as follows:

"The name of ---------- has been deleted as he is not able to travel with his wife and will follow later.

A Photostat copy of this Landing Permit has been certified at this Consular Section and handed to ..... in order to enable him to obtain his visa when he will obtain his passport ".

As it is contrary to the established immigratio policy to allow wives to precede their husbands to Australia except in exceptional circumstances you are requested in any case where a wife desires to precede her husband to Australi to refer the matter for consideration by the Chief Immigration Officer, Commonwealth of Australia, Australia, House Strand, London, W.C. 2 together with information as to the circumstances of the case.

Such applications should be referred through this department.

M.JEFFS.

To HIS MAJESTY'S CONSULAR and Passport Control Officers authorised to grant visas.
